

The REAL STORY of Pune Porsche Case

~ Abinash Dwibedi

The Boy's Mother Texts On The WhatsApp Group Asking Why Does It Matter Who Was Driving The Car. The Important Thing Is That The Driver Was In The Car, So It Wasn't His Fault. The Driver's Blood Sample Was Taken In A Public Room. The Three Boys' Blood Samples Were Taken In The Cabin Of The Chief Medical Officer, Where There Was No CCTV Camera. The Boys' Grandfather Thought Of Holding A Press Conference And Telling The World That The Two People Who Died Were Drunk And Were In Front Of The Car. The Police Found Out That The Boy's Father Had Given Rs. 3 Lakhs To The Head Of The Forensic Department Of The Hospital. Whenever There's A Horrific Crime In Our Country, I Get Comments That Our Country Will Never Change. Whether It's The Rape Case Of Kolkata, The Case Of Atul Subhash Or The Pune Porsche Case. After A Few Days, People Forget Everything. But I Don't Want That To Happen, So I Want To Bring Attention Back To An Important Case Of This Year, Which Showed Us That If You Have Money In Our Country, You Can Make Anyone Dance Naked At The Point Of Your Finger. A Few Weeks Ago, The Pune Police Submitted A 900-Page Chart Sheet, Which Told Us In Detail What Happened In This Case. In The Next 23 Minutes, I Will Give You All The Information From This Chart Sheet Be It Family WhatsApp Messages, CCTV Images, Or Medical Reports So That The Public Can Put Pressure On The Authorities To Change Our System. On May 18, 2024, A 17-Year-Old Boy Goes Out With His Friends To Celebrate The Results Of The 12th Board Exams. He Goes Out With His Two Friends In A Grey Porsche Taycan. A Car Which Is Not Registered And Doesn't Even Have A Plate Number. They Go To Cosie Pub In Koregaon Park. The Boy Arrives There In His Car With His Friends. The Valet Asks Him If He Can Park His Car. The Boy Says That His Driver Is Following Him And He Will Park His Car. Then A Modest Car Arrives The Driver Gets Off And Parks The Porsche. At 10.40 Pm, They Reach The Pub And Order Food And Drinks. The Boy's Grandfather Gave Him A Credit Card To Cover All Expenses. 70% Of The Drinks They Order Are Hard Liquor, Which Can Only Be Served To People Aged 25+. They Stay There For 90 Minutes. They Pay A Bill Costing Rs. 50,000. At 12.30 Am, The Three Boys Leave The Pub And Go To Blak Hotel In The Same Area. The Hotel's Bouncer Sees The Three Boys Getting Off Their Car. He Asks Them If They Are Members Of The Club. Because The Entry Was Restricted To The

Members. They Say That They Don't Have A Membership. So The Bouncer Doesn't Give Them Entry. After A Few Minutes, The Three Boys Go Back To The Bouncer. They Say That They Don't Want To Go To Blak Hotel. They Want To Go To Another Restaurant Called Sorriso. It's Right Next To Blak Hotel. The Bouncer Allows Them In. But As Soon As The Bouncer Looks The Other Way, The Three Boys Go To Blak Hotel. They Order Drinks Again And Leave The Hotel At 2 Pm. The Boy's Driver Is Still Waiting Outside. The Driver Says To The Boy, You've Had A Lot Of Drinks, So I'll Drive The Car. But The Boy Doesn't Listen. He Says To The Driver, You Sit In The Passenger Seat With Me. My Friends Will Sit In The Back. I'll Drive The Car. The Boy Drives The Car. And At Some Point, He Drives At A Speed Of 150 Kmph. The Driver Tells Him To Drive Slowly. But The Boy Doesn't Listen. On The Same Night, A Group Of Five Friends Are Having A Celebration Of Their Own. In This Group Are Aneesh Awadhiya And Ashwini Kosta, Who Work For Johnson Controls. Akib Mulla, Who Works For Nextbridge Solutions. Amankumar Kundra, A Consultant. And Isha Jaju, An Event Planner. At 10.30 Pm, They Go To The Ballr Hotel In Kalyaninagar. They Have Dinner There. And After 3 Hours, They Leave For Home At 1.30 Pm. It's Very Late At Night. Aneesh Decides To Drop His Colleague Ashwini To Her House. Both Of Them Leave On Pulsar. The Other Two Friends Leave On A Bullet. And Akib Leaves On His Bike. They All Leave From The Same Route. It's 2.30 Am. And They're On Kalyaninagar Road. On This Road, Akib And Another Friend Take A U-turn. Whereas Aneesh And Ashwini Go Straight To The Airport Road, Where Ashwini's House Is. As Akib Takes A U-turn, A Porsche Passes By Him. In A Short While, A Loud Noise Is Heard. As He Looks Towards The Noise, He Realizes That The Porsche Has Crashed With Aneesh's Bike. Aneesh Skids With His Pulsar, And Collides With A Red Swift Car On The Road. Ashwini's Situation Is Also Very Serious. Vithal Jadhav, Who Works At A Restaurant Nearby And An Eyewitness To This Case, Says That Because Of This Crash, Ashwini Was Flung In The Air. Both The Boy And The Girl's Heads Hit The Road, And Blood Starts Flowing. Both Of Them Are Badly Injured On The Road. The Airbag Inside The Porsche Opens Due To The Crash. The Eyewitnesses See That There Are 4 People In The Car. The Boy Is In The Driver's Seat, Wearing A Black T-shirt And Pants. There's A Driver Next To Him, And 2 More Boys Behind Him. So That The 4 Boys Don't Run Away, The People Hold Them And Start Asking Questions. Some People Even Beat Them Up. The Owner Of The Red Swift Car That Aneesh Collided With, Said, So That The Driver Doesn't Run Away, I And Many Other People Took Him Out Of The Car. We Saw

That He Was Very Drunk. In A Little While, The Police Arrive. They Stop An Auto And Tell The Driver To Take Anesh And Ashwini To A Nearby Hospital. His Friends Then Put Them In The Auto And Take Them To Sahyadri Hospital For Emergency Treatment At 2.45 Am. The Doctors Then Examine Both Of Them. This Is Aneesh's Autopsy Report. The Causality Medical Officer Says That Aneesh Is Unconscious And Unresponsive. There's No Pulse, No Heartbeat, No Respiration. Both The Pupils Are Dilated And Non-Responsive To Light. His BP Is Not Recordable And There's A Flat Line On The ECG, Which Means There's No Cardiac Activity. At 2.50 Am, He Is Declared Brought Dead. Ashwini's Autopsy Report Is The Same. At 2.52 Am, Ashwini Is Declared Brought Dead. The Police Arrive At The Crime Scene And Take The Three Boys And The Driver Into Custody And Take Them To Yerwada Police Station. There Are Many Twists In The Story. A Local MLA Is Involved And Blood Samples Are Mixed. I'm Making This Video Based On This 913-Page Chart Sheet Filed By The Police. At 3 Am, The Local MLA, Sunil Tingre, Arrives At The Police Station. We Don't Know What He Said To The Police. But He Told The Reporters That He's Known The Boy's Family For The Past 30 Years And That They're His Friends. That's Why He Was There. When I Got Here, I Found Out That The Boy Had Met With An Accident. That's Why I Won't Interfere. Is He Telling The Truth? Let's Find Out. The Next Day, At 8.26 Am, Aneesh And Ashwini's Friend, Akib, Files An FIR Against The Boy. The Accused Is Charged With 5 Different Sections Of The Indian Penal Code,. It's Been 7 Hours Since The Accident, But The Accused's Blood Test Hasn't Been Done Yet. At 9.40 Am, In At The Sassoon Goverment Hospital, MLA Tingre's Aide, Ashfaq Makandar And A Middleman, Amar Gaikwad Go To Meet The Hospital Staff. This Meeting Takes Place In A Car Parking Area. MLA's Aides Give A Packet To The Hospital Employee Containing Cash. The Hospital Employee Puts The Packet In A Two-Wheeler. At 10.15 Am, The Constable Gets A Call From The Assistant Police Inspector. The Assistant Police Inspector Says That The Hospital Has Asked Them To Conduct A Blood Test For The Three Boys And The Driver To Trace Alcohol. The Assistant Police Inspector Orders The Constable To Take The Four Boys To Sassoon Hospital For A Blood Test. At 10.30 A.m., The Four Accused Reach The Hospital. After Reaching The Hospital, The Boy's Driver Is Taken To The Emergency Ward Where A Physical Examination Is Done And A Blood Sample Is Collected. After 1.5 Hours, Around 11.07 A.m., The MLA's Aide Ashfak Makandar Enters The Cabin Of The Chief Medical Officer. After Spending 5 Minutes There, He Leaves The Cabin. After Leaving The Cabin, The

MLA's Aide Calls The Head Of Forensic Medicine Of The Hospital. This Call Goes On For 1.24 Minutes. After Which, The Head Of Forensic Medicine Talks To The Chief Medical Officer. These Three Men, The MLA's Aide The Head Of Forensic Medicine And The Chief Medical Officer Exchange Several Calls. At 11.40 A.m., The Three Boys Enter The Cabin For Their Examination. Where The Driver's Examination Was Done In A Public Area, In The Emergency Ward, The Boys' Examination Is Done In The Cabin Of The Chief Medical Officer. After The Boys' Physical Examination, The Chief Medical Officer Says That Before Taking Their Blood Sample, He Needs The Permission Of Their Parents. The Parents Are Standing Outside, So They Get The Permission Very Quickly. The Chief Medical Officer Then Asks Two Medical Interns To Draw The Boys' Blood. But There's A Twist Here. Actually, He Doesn't Ask Them To Draw The Boys' Blood. Instead, He Asks Them To Draw The Adults' Blood. Not The Boys' Blood. There Are Two Rooms In The Chief Medical Officer's Cabin. One Is On The Outside, Where The Boys' Physical Test Was Done. And The Other Is On The Inside. There Is No CCTV Camera Inside The Room. And Blood Samples Are Collected There. At 12.25 Pm, A Friend Of The Accused Enters The Cabin Of The Chief Medical Officer Accompanied By His Father To Give His Blood Sample. Six Minutes Later, Another Boy Enters The Cabin Accompanied By His Mother To Give A Blood Sample. After This, The Third Boy Enters The Cabin Accompanied By A Relative To Give A Blood Sample. You'll Find Out What Happened Inside The Cabin In A While. Meanwhile, These Three People, The MLA's Aide And Two Hospital Officials Are Regularly Communicating With Each Other. And When This Happens, There's A Constable Outside The Cabin Of The Chief Medical Officer. He Confirms That When The Accused Boy Was With His Mother, The Hospital Officials Were Constantly Talking To The MLA's Aide. This Means That The Blood Samples That Are Tested Doesn't Belong To The Boys But The Adults. Then These Blood Samples Are Sent To The Regional Forensic Lab In Pune. After The Blood Test, The Three Boys And The Driver Are Taken Back To The Police Station. And Behind Them, The MLA's Aide And The Same Middleman Come To The Police Station. Now, The News Of This Accident Has Gone Viral In The Media. "I'm Talking About That Tragic Car Crash From Pune, Which Has Sent Shockwaves Across The Nation." And The News Reporters Have Surrounded The Police Station. And Between 2-2.30 Pm, The Reporters Saw Something Strange. They See That Outside The Police Station, There's A Porsche And A Pulsar That Were Involved In The Accident. And Two Mercedes-Benz Are Also With Them. A Man Gets Off From One Of

These Two Mercedes-Benzes. We Don't Know Who This Man Is. He Has Pizza Boxes In His Hands. He Goes Inside The Police Station And Puts The Pizza Boxes In The Hands Of The Accused Man. And Inside The Police Station, The Reporters See That The Accused Man Is Sitting On The ACP's Chair. In The Evening, The Physical Examination Reports Of The Three Boys And The Accused Man's Driver Are Published. These Reports Contain The Signs Of The Hospital's Chief Medical Officer. What Is Written In These Reports? That There Is No Physical Sign That Anyone Had Drunk Alcohol. For Example, There Is One Question. Did You Smell Alcohol From Their Mouths? Yes Or No? No Is Circled. Was Their Speech And Behaviour Sober? Yes, It Was Okay. Did They Have Signs Of Drinking Alcohol In Their Eyes? No. In The End, Dr. Hahnur Concludes That None Of The Four People Had Drunk Alcohol. Apart From The Physical Examination, Show That Neither The Boy Nor The Driver Had Drunk Alcohol. "Big Revelation Regarding The Pune Porsche Case." "The Accused Has Received A Bail." "The Bombay High Court Has Made An Announcement Regarding It." The Juvenile Justice Board Has Given The Boy A Bail. And The Pune Police Approach The Court With An Appeal That The Boy Should Be Treated Not As A Minor But As An Adult. And The Bail States That The Boy's Grandfather Will Keep Him Away From Bad Company. It Is Said That The Boy Will Focus On Studies And Extracurricular Activities. And It Is Said That The Boy's Parents Will Ensure That The Boy Never Commits Such A Mistake. For The Next 15 Days, The Boy Will Have To Go To A Regional Transport Office And Learn All The Traffic Rules. He Will Have To Seek Counselling. And He Will Have To Meet A Mental Health Professional At The Hospital. He Is Also Asked To Write A 300-Word Essay On Road Safety. When The Juvenile Justice Board Says That The Boy And His Family Have Accepted All These Conditions, The Boy Gets A Bail. On The Same Night, The Family's Driver Is On His Way Home. But The Boy's Grandfather Forces Him To Sit In His BMW. Then The Grandfather Takes The Driver To His Bungalow. There, The Boy's Father And Grandfather Take The Driver's Phone And Forcefully Lock Him In The Room. They Pressure Him To Take The Blame For The Accident On Himself. And Give The Police A Statement That The Accident Was His Fault. The Next Day, On The 20th Of May, A WhatsApp Group Is Created Where The Boy's Parents, Grandfather, And Three Lawyers Are Added. Every Detail Of The Case Is Shared On This Group. Let Me Give You An Example. At 4.11 P.m., The Boy's Mother Sends A Message To The Group. I Have A Point. No Matter Who Is Driving The Car, It Doesn't Matter. What Matters Is That The Driver Was In The Car. So, The Accident

Was The Driver's Fault. So, The Boy Drove The Car And Hit Two People. It's Not The Boy's Fault. The Driver Was In The Car. It's The Driver's Fault. Now, Remember That The Driver Is Still Locked Up In The Family's House. Because Of Tension, The Driver's Wife Goes To The Same House. She Creates A Ruckus, And Finally, The Family Lets The Driver Go. Then The Boy's Family Comes Up With Another Idea. Apart From Blaming The Driver, We Can Also Blame The Car. Two-Month-Old Screenshots Are Shared On The WhatsApp Group Between The Boy And The Car Dealer. The Boy Was Telling The Car Dealer That There's An Issue With The Car's Key And Lock. The Boy Says That The Car Isn't Getting Unlocked. And The Technician Tells The Boy That He Has To Replace The Part. On The Same Evening, The Boy's Father Is Arrested Because His Son Was Driving The Car Without A Driver's License. The Owners Of Cosie And Blak Pubs Are Also Charged Because They Served Alcohol To The Underaged Boys. On The Evening Of May 21, The Accused Boy Is Told That He Has To Come To The Police Station For An Investigation. The Boy's Lawyer Advises That The Boy Should Constantly Say That He's Scared, Needs Counselling, And Wants To Be With His Parents. The Lawyer Also Says That The Boy Can Remain Silent Under Article 21. Now, Because The Media Is Making Such A Fuss That The Boy Got A 15-Hour Bail Despite The Accident, The Juvenile Justice Board Cancels The Boy's Bail. The Next Day, The Boy Tells The Police That It Wasn't Him But His Driver Who Was Driving The Car During The Accident. The Two Other Boys In The Car Also Support This Statement. The Police Bring The Driver To The Police Station For An Investigation. The Next Day, At 11 Am, The Accused Boy's Mother Sends A Message On WhatsApp. I Want The Media To Know What Trauma My Son Is Going Through. He's A Child And Nothing Has Been Proven. The Driver Was In The Case, But Why Isn't Anyone Talking About Him? In Response, The Grandfather Says, Why Don't We Hold A Press Conference And Say That The Victims Were Drunk And They Came In Front Of The Car Due To Over-Speeding. Then The Grandfather Says That The Driver Has Admitted That It Was He Who Was Driving The Car. And We Can Also Prove That It Was The Car That Broke Down. The Next Day, The Grandfather Forwards A Message To The WhatsApp Group Saying, Why Don't We Get The CCTV Footage To Prove How The Victims Were Drinking Before The Accident. He Says That If We Get The Bills For Their Food And Drinks, We Can Save Our Son. Meanwhile, The Police Investigation Continues. First, They Interrogate The Driver. Then They Reach Out To The Porsche Company To Find Out If There's Anything Wrong With The Car. The Porsche Company Says That

They'll Come To The Police Station And Provide Technical Details. During The Interrogation, The Driver Tells The Police The Whole Truth. He Says How The Boy's Father And Grandfather Pressured Him And Bribed Him To Confess The Crime. Meanwhile, The Pune Police Commissioner Says That They Got The CCTV Footage Of The Boy Drinking With His Friends In A Pub. The Commissioner Also Says That The Boy's Family Is Pressurizing The Driver. The Next Day, The Grandfather Is Arrested For The Same Case. Now It's The 27th. Just As The Police Are Investigating, More News Is Released To The Public. For Example, A Week Has Passed Since The Blood-Swapping Incident That Took Place In The Hospital. And This News Is Released To The Public. "The Samples Of The Minor Involved In The Accident Were Switched With Those Of Another Person Who Had Not Consumed Alcohol." The Police Commissioner Tells The Media That The Family Had Made A Huge Plan To Swap Blood Tests. This Happened Right In Front Of The Eyes Of The Nation. What Happens Next Will Give You Goosebumps. But To Understand This, We Need To Go Back A Few Days. Remember, I Told You That On The Morning Of May 19, The Boy, His Two Friends And The Driver's Blood Samples Are Collected. All This Happens In Sassoon Hospital, Which Is Handled By Chief Medical Officer Dr. Halnor. At 6 Pm, The Police Take The Boy For Another Blood Test At Aundh District Hospital. The Police Commissioner Says That They Did It Because It's A Sensitive Case And They Don't Want Any Manipulation. The Sassoon Hospital Samples Show That The Boy Had Not Consumed Alcohol. But The Results Of Aundh Hospital Are Very Different. This Makes The Police Doubt How This Could Have Happened. So They Start An Investigation. That's Why On May 21, The Police Conductes A DNA Test From The Regional Forensic Lab Of Both The Blood Samples. They Find That The DNA Of Both The Boy's Blood Samples Doesn't Match. Then, The Police Realize What Actually Happened At Sassoon Hospital. The Investigation Reveals That The MLA's Aide Ashfaq Makandar Found A Middleman For The Boy's Family. This Middleman Then Talks To The Head Of Forensic Department Of The Hospital. The Middleman Goes To Kalyaninagar To Collect Money From The Boy's Father. And This Money Is Used To Bribe The Hospital Staff. The Police Finds Out That The Boy's Father Had Bribed The Head Of Forensic Department Of The Hospital With 3 Lakh Rupees. This Bribe Was Used To Sponsor The Theatrical At The Hospital. A Medical Student At The Hospital Confirms This Bribe. The Student Said That Dr. Ajay Gave The Student 2.5 Lakh Rupees And Told Him That He Didn't Have Sufficient Storage To Store The Money. The Student Had Known The Doctor For 6

Years. That's Why He Kept The Money. But During The Investigation, He Reveals All This And Gives The Money To The Pune Crime Branch. The Investigation Isn't Over Yet. The Bribe Was Handed Over Not Only To The Forensic Department But Also To The Chief Medical Officer. 2.5 Lakh Rupees! The Police Recovers These 2.5 Lakh Rupees From The Chief Medical Officer. Then The Police Questioned The Other Doctors And Medical Residents To Find Out What Happened At The Hospital. A Doctor Who Works In The Hospital's Emergency Ward Gives A Statement. He Said That On The Afternoon Of 19th May, The Chief Medical Officer Asked Him To Get The Blood Sample Of The Accused's Mother. The Doctor Asks Him Why He Needed A Blood Sample Of The Mother. The Chief Medical Officer Replies That The Head Of Forensic Department Had Given The Order. The Doctor Comprehends What The Matter Is And Refuses To Take The Sample. Then The Chief Medical Officer Looks For Another Doctor. And The Other Doctor Said That As Soon As She Reached The Chief Medical Officer's Office, There Was A 17-Year-Old Boy And A Lady In Green Clothes. The Chief Medical Officer Asks The Doctor To Take A Blood Sample Of The Lady. The Doctor Takes The Blood Sample, Gives It To The Chief Medical Officer And Leaves The Office. The Police Finds Out That The Chief Medical Officer Threw Away The Boys' Blood Samples And Submitted Samples Of The Adults. On 30th May, The Porsche's Mumbai Office Produces A Report About The Car. It's Reported That When The Accident Happened At 2.30 A.m., The Speed Of The Car Was 68 Mph Or 110 Kmph. After Checking The Brakes, It Was Found That There Was Nothing Wrong With Them. On 1st June, The Boy's Mother Was Arrested In A Blood-Swapping Case. On 25th June, The Bombay High Court Gives Bail To The Accused Boy. The Court Says That There Was Public Pressure On The Case But That Doesn't Mean That It Stops Following The Laws. The Boy Was Kept In A Remand Home Which Is Illegal. So The Court Has Given Him A Bail. The Court Says That The Juvenile Justice Act Of 2015 Clearly States That Children Will Not Be Treated Like Adults In The Case Of Crimes. The Court Says That The Boy Would Need Therapy And De-addiction Counselling. In The Same Month, The Police Submits A 900-Page Charge Sheet Based On Which This Video Was Made. If We Talk About The Current Status, The Boy's Entire Family Is In Jail Because They Wanted To Hide His Exorbitant Blunder. The Boy's Lawyer Said That He's Not Getting Admission In College. Hopefully, This Case Will Send A Message To The Entire Country That There Can Be Consequences If You Drink And Drive And If You Believe That If You Have Money, You Can Turn Any Road Into Your Racetrack.

***